Tenured Professor of Law or Tenure-Track Associate Professor of Law

Posting Date: July 5, 2018

The University of California Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco (“UC Hastings”) seeks to hire a tenured or tenure-track faculty member. We seek someone who is, or who promises to be, an innovative and productive scholar, an exemplary teacher, and a role model for our students, and who will contribute as a dynamic and engaged institutional citizen. We will accord priority in consideration to candidates who teach and produce scholarship in the areas of state and local government law or contracts/private law. We are particularly interested in recruiting someone who will contribute to our vibrant and diverse community of interdisciplinary scholars. Entry-level and lateral candidates should send a CV, statement of interest, and representative publications in .pdf format to Professor Chimène Keitner, Appointments Committee Chair, keitnerc@uchastings.edu, with the subject heading “Faculty Position.” We will conduct interviews on campus and at the 2018 AALS Faculty Recruitment Conference.

Founded in 1878 by Serranus Clinton Hastings, the first Chief Justice of California, UC Hastings was California’s first law school and a charter member of the Association of American Law Schools. Situated in the heart of San Francisco's Civic Center, UC Hastings is in the midst of vibrant and world-renowned technology and non-profit communities. Many of the city’s top attractions are just blocks away, and the spectacular natural beauty of northern California is within easy reach.

UC Hastings prohibits discrimination against any person employed, seeking employment, or applying for or engaged in a paid or unpaid internship or training program leading to employment with UC Hastings on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, gender transition status, sex- or gender-stereotyping, pregnancy, physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), genetic information (including family medical history), ancestry, marital status, citizenship, or service in the uniformed services, including protected veterans. This policy applies to all employment practices, including recruitment, selection, promotion, transfer, merit increase, salary, training and development, demotion, and separation.

Federal law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities. Please contact Human Resources if you require a reasonable accommodation to apply for a job. Examples of reasonable accommodation include making a change to the application process, providing documents in an alternate format, using a sign language interpreter, or using specialized equipment.
