On 11/05/12 at approximately 11:15am it was reported to the Office of Public Safety that a theft occurred on the 100 block of McAllister Street.

A member of the Public reported that they attempted to purchase two tickets to a Pop-Up Magazine lecture at San Francisco Symphony Hall from Craig’s list. The victim spoke with suspect #1 who identified himself as Robert, a football player at UCLA. Suspect #1 requested victim to pick him up at the Courtyard Marriott Hotel in San Bruno and take him to meet a UC Hastings student in the 100 block of McAllister because his car broke down. Victim picked up suspect #1 and transported him to the 100 block of McAllister Street. Suspect #2 an unidentified white male adult approached victim and suspect Robert. Victim gave Robert $90.00 in cash for the two tickets. Robert and the unidentified suspect left to get the tickets. Thirty minutes later victim got a call from both suspects asking if the victim wanted VIP seating? If so, victim would have to pay an additional $24.00 for the seats. Suspect Robert returned to the 100 block of McAllister and collected an additional $24.00 in cash from victim. Suspect Robert left the scene and did not return with the tickets. The suspects were not identified as Hastings students.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact the UC Hastings Public Safety Department at (415)-565-4611, refer to case #12-5785.
