BYLAWS OF THE HASTINGS-TO-HAITI PARTNERSHIP ORGANIZATION

Article I Name of Organization
This organization shall be named Hastings-to-Haiti Partnership (HHP, "Organization").

Article II Purpose
1. The Organization seeks to strengthen the rule of law in Haiti by facilitating the exchange of democratic ideas and legal doctrines between Haitian and American law students.
2. The Organization shall comply with the Policies and Regulations Applying to College Activities, Organizations, and Students.

Article III Membership
1. The Organization shall follow the University of California Hastings College of the Law ("Hastings") Nondiscrimination Compliance Code.
2. Any full-time student at Hastings may become a member of the Organization.
3. There shall be no dues or fees for membership in the Organization.

Article IV Officers
1. The Organization shall have no less than four (5) officers.
2. The Organization shall have one (1) President, one (1) Vice-President, one (1) Treasurer, one (1) Secretary, one (1) Program Chair, and any other officers as needed ("Board").
3. Second- and third-year students who have held membership for a minimum of one academic semester shall be eligible to hold office or to head special committees.
4. The method of nomination shall be from the floor by an active member. Officers of the Organization shall be elected by secret ballot to service for one academic year. Elections shall be held during the spring semester at the annual business meeting in April and all officers shall take office the following meeting after their election and shall remain in office until their successors are elected.

* The University of California, Hastings College of the Law, in accordance with applicable state and federal laws and campus policies, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, ancestry, citizenship, sexual orientation, status as a veteran or special disabled veteran, or other legally protected class, and it prohibits sexual harassment in its programs and activities. Inquiries about Hastings student-related policies, or the College's compliance with the state and federal laws and campus regulations relating to nondiscrimination, may be directed to the Director of Student Services, Hastings College of the Law, 200 McAllister Street, San Francisco, CA 94102, or to the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, United Nations Plaza, San Francisco, CA 94102.

6. If the office of the president should become vacant for any reason, the vice-president shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. If any office other the president shall become vacant, that vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the president for the remainder of the term.

7. No member shall hold more than one office at a time and no member shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office.

8. The officers shall perform duties prescribed by these bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the organization.

Article V Meetings

1. The regular meetings of the organization shall be held on the first Thursday of each month from September to April unless otherwise ordered by the Organization.

2. The regular meeting on the first Thursday in April shall be known as the annual meeting and shall be for the purpose of electing officers and receiving reports of officers and committees.

3. Special meetings may be called by the president or by the request of five active members of the organization. At least two-days notice shall be given to all members.

4. Sixty (60) percent of the entire active membership shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but less than a quorum may adjourn any meeting.

5. The president of the Organization shall preside at all meetings of the organization. If the president is unable to preside over a meeting, then any member of the Board may preside.

Article VI Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the Organization may adopt.

Article VII Amendment of Bylaws

1. These Bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Organization by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting.