Bylaws of the UC Hastings Cycling Club
08/24/2012

Article I - Name of Organization

The name of our organization is the UC Hastings Cycling Club.

Article II – Purpose

The purpose of the UC Hastings Cycling Club is to represent the student body at Hastings College of the Law who are members of the cycling community, to promote cycling as a recreational, athletic, and cultural activity, and to compete in collegiate cycling events.

Article III – Membership

Membership to our organization is restricted to full-time students at Hastings. We will not impose any dues or fees to be a member of our organization.

Article IV– Officers

Section 1. The officers of this organization shall consist of a president, vice president, and a treasurer.

Section 2. Any member of the organization is eligible to hold office.

Section 3. The method of nomination shall be from the floor by an active member. Officers of the organization shall be elected by secret ballot by the members to service for one academic year. Elections shall be held at the beginning of the fall semester, and all officers shall take office the following meeting after their election and shall remain in office until their successors are elected.

Section 4. If the office of the president should become vacant for any reason, the vice president shall fill that vacancy for the remainder of the term. If any office other than the president shall become vacant, that vacancy shall be filled by special election by the members for the remainder of the term.

Section 5. No member shall hold more than one office at a time.

Section 6. The officers shall perform duties prescribed by these bylaws and by the democratic authority adopted by the organization.

Article V – Meetings

Section 1. The regular meetings of the organization shall be held on the first Monday of each month from September to April, unless otherwise ordered by the organization.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called at the request of any of the officers.

Article IV – Amendment of Bylaws

These bylaws can be amended at any regular meeting of the organization by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting.
